

BAGA Email Policy

The opinions and messages expressed by subscribers on this list do not necessarily reflect the opinions of the BAGA BODs, unless sent by bods@bagatx.org.

1. Any message containing profanity, obscenity, offensive remarks, etc. will not be approved.
2. When a moderator deems a message to be personal or confidential or not addressed to the community, the message will not be approved.
3. Emails on the same topic, six or more, will be considered a discussion and will be redirected to a discussion forum(*) or to offline discussions among the senders. The moderator will follow an exception to this policy when a moderator deems a matter an emergency(**) or a special circumstance(***)).
4. When a moderator deems a message conflicts with BAGA's interest, the moderator will direct the message to a discussion forum at the Board's discretion. An entity can conflict BAGA's interest when it conflicts with the goals of BAGA as defined in by-laws or attempts to misrepresent or harm BAGA or its member(s).
5. Up to two announcements for an event organized by an organization other than BAGA will be approved, at the Board's discretion.
6. Messages containing suspicious attachments or URLs will not be approved. Messages with unverified (****) links will not be approved.
7. BAGA reserves the right to deny any email or change membership and subscription. Any subscriber found to send virus or spam will be removed without notice.
8. Any change in the moderation policies has to be approved by 2/3rd majority of the BAGA BODs. Change in policy will be emailed to members as an amendment to current policy.
